

Frank D. Wiseman

Senior Vice President - Investments

Frank has more than 38 years of investment experience; seven of those have been with Davenport & Company. He started his financial services career with Wheat First Securities in 1982 and later worked with Legg Mason and Smith Barney before joining Davenport in 2009.

Frank has a BA in Business Administration from Elon University. When he is not assisting clients, Frank dedicates his free time to his family and his horse farm in the Bachelors Hall community, just outside of Danville. He and his wife Paige have three grown children.
