

Client Education

We believe informed clients make better decisions. This starts by getting to know you and taking the time to listen to your needs, goals, risk tolerance and time horizon. We prioritize open communication, helping to ensure clients are informed and involved in the decision-making process. We regularly partner with Davenport's Asset Management, Client Services, and Research teams to deliver educational opportunities for our clients to enhance their financial literacy and become more familiar with the services provided across our firm.