of Davenport & Company LLC

Whitey Lipscomb

Executive Vice President-Investments

Whitey has been in the financial services industry for more than 50 years. He is an honorary member of Davenport's Board of Directors and former member of the firm's Executive Committee. Whitey advises clients and guides them on a variety of asset allocation services including equity, fixed income, and mutual fund strategies.

Whitey graduated from Hampden-Sydney College with a degree in History. Whitey is a former member of the Hampden-Sydney Board of Trustees and is a recipient of the college's Keating Medallion, an award given in recognition for "outstanding service and extraordinary dedication to Hampden-Sydney College." He currently serves on the Westminster Canterbury Foundation Board and The Northern Neck Audubon Foundation Board.

Stuart Gregory

Managing Director

Stuart has been in the financial services industry for more than 35 years, beginning his career at Merrill Lynch in 1984 and later moving his practice to Davenport in 1989. In 2007, he was appointed to Davenport's Board of Directors and in 2018 became a member of the firm's Executive Committee. Through careful financial planning and the utilization of a variety of securities including individual stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and ETFs, Stuart tailors clients' portfolios to best fit their needs and goals.

Stuart earned a BS degree with a double major in finance and economics from Virginia Commonwealth University. Stuart attends the River Road Presbyterian Church where he has served as both an elder and currently serves as an Endowment Fund Trustee and a member of the Finance Committee. He has also served on the St. Gertrude High School Finance Committee.

Church Young

Managing Director

Church began his career in the securities industry in 1993 as a Financial Advisor with Wheat First Butcher Singer (now Wells Fargo Advisors). In 1999, he moved his successful financial practice to PaineWebber which later became UBS. Church joined Davenport in 2006 as a First Vice President-Investments. Today, Church uses his more than 20 years of investment experience to serve individuals and small businesses with thoughtful life goals planning and professional money management solutions. Before entering the investment business, Church worked for 10 years at James River Corporation in marketing, manufacturing, and product development.

He is a graduate of St. Christopher's School and earned a BA degree in Economics from Hampden-Sydney College. Church serves on the Investment Committee of Central Virginia Food Bank. In 2023, Church was elected to Davenport's Board of Directors.
