

Harrison Geho Jr.

Financial Advisor Trainee

Harrison joined Davenport & Company in 2025. Prior to joining Davenport, he worked as a Consultant at Oracle for seven years where he worked with CFOs to customize and implement cloud based accounting and reporting tool. As a Financial Advisor Trainee with Ballowe Geho Gottwald Roddey, he specializes in understanding each client's unique goals and translating them into clear, actionable financial strategies. Harrison graduated with a BSBA in Finance and BS in Accounting from Elon University.

Outside of the office he enjoys being on the water, fly fishing and paddling the James with his wife, Ali. He is an avid gardener and member of the Humphrey Community Garden where he tends to a plot and works to improve his green thumb alongside fellow neighborhood gardeners.
