

Stewart Roddey

Senior Vice President - Investments

Stewart joined Davenport in 2002. He brings a diverse background of sales, finance and business ownership experience to Ballowe Geho Gottwald Roddey. Before joining the group, Stewart was one of the earliest members of Davenport's Institutional Equities Sales department where he worked with some of New York's most sophisticated hedge funds and money managers. Stewart is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is Series 7, 63 and 66 registered and is licensed to sell insurance.

Stewart is a past member of the Board of Trustees at Virginia Episcopal School, a college preparatory, independent boarding and day school. He and his wife, Sally, have two children, Stewart Jr. and Helen.