

Alison B. Foley

Vice President - Investments

Alison focuses on helping individuals and families plan for their goals and for a secure retirement. As the daughter of two entrepreneurs, she is also passionate about working with small business owners and non-profit organizations to build financial road maps for both their current needs and for legacy planning. Alison joined Davenport & Company in 2007 as a Sales Assistant and transitioned to an Investment Executive in 2011.

A graduate of the University of Virginia, Alison earned a double Bachelor of Arts degree in Spanish and Anthropology. She is a FINRA Registered Representative and an Investment Advisor Representative with her Series 7 and 66 licenses. She is also licensed to offer annuities and long-term care, long-term disability and life insurance.

Deeply committed to her community, Alison has served as a Board member and Treasurer with the Peake Childhood Center (formerly Downtown Hampton Child Development Center), a Board member of the Early Childhood Music School in Williamsburg, and a Finance Committee member of the Williamsburg Parents Cooperative Preschool. She has also been involved with the Junior League of Hampton Roads since 2013 and currently serves on its Board of Directors. In May 2019, Alison received the Janie Radford Dwyer Service Award from the Junior League of Hampton Roads for outstanding service within the organization. In her free time, Alison enjoys traveling, reading, yoga, and spending time with her husband Jake and two children, Johanna and James.
