

Cameron B. Shah

Financial Advisor

Cameron joined Davenport in May 2022. Prior to joining the firm, he worked for three years as a Financial Advisor at Edward Jones and for one year as an engineer at GE Healthcare. Cameron specializes in helping families organize, protect and grow their wealth and enjoys helping families with special needs.

A graduate of James Madison University, Cameron earned a BBA in Computer Information Systems. He is Series 7 and 66 registered with FINRA and he is licensed to offer life, health and annuities to clients.

Cameron grew up near Staunton, Virginia and at the age of 10, he had an accident that burned over 25% of his body. This experience has inspired Cameron to give back to others. He volunteers at VCU in the Evan Haynes Burn Center to provide support to burn survivors; has served as a counselor and camp leader for Central Virginia Burn Camp; and volunteers for Survivors Offering Assistance in Recovery for the Phoenix Society.

In his free time, Cameron enjoys spending time with his wife, Sydney, and their German Shorthaired Pointer, playing golf, fly fishing, cycling, and helping with his dad's chai business at the Staunton Farmers Market.

Cameron Shah is registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority to offer securities services to clients who reside in Florida, Maryland, Nevada, North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and Washington. He is licensed to offer insurance and annuity products to residents in Florida, Texas, Virginia and Washington.
