

Mary Katherine Evans Hogg

Senior Vice President - Investments

Mary Katherine started her career in the financial services industry more than 20 years ago. She focuses on providing sound wealth management strategies and her approach of engaging clients through each step helps them have confidence regarding their financial decisions. Mary Katherine helps clients face the growing need for income planning strategies and rising cost of health care. She specializes in creating a plan with a goal of combining preservation, growth and transfer of wealth.

Mary Katherine graduated Cum Laude with Distinction from Mary Baldwin College with a BA in Business Administration and minors in Economics and Asian Studies. As a native of Hampton, she is devoted to giving back to the community in which she was raised. She has dedicated much of her time to philanthropic organizations such as CASA, the Mariners' Museum, American Red Cross, Patient Advocate Foundation, Kiwanis, First United Methodist Church and Grace Episcopal. Mary Katherine is especially passionate about animals and works with multiple animal rescue organizations.

She currently lives in Poquoson and Keswick with her two rescue dogs, Willis and Pippa. She loves spending time with her family, especially with her three nieces and three Godchildren.
