

James P. “Pat” Rennie

Senior Vice President - Investments

After graduating from University of Virginia in 1973, Pat worked for a local CPA firm in Charlottesville for two years. His interest in accounting and finances led him to join Wheat, First Securities in 1975, where he entered the firm's Financial Advisor Professional Development Program. Over the next 16 years, Pat was promoted several times, rising to become a Senior Vice President. In 1991, he was presented an attractive opportunity to join the Charlottesville office of Davenport & Company.

Pat holds a Bachelors degree in Government Foreign Affairs from the University of Virginia. He and his wife, Jinny, have three adult children. In his free time, he enjoys working in the yard, spending time with his four grandchildren and playing golf.

Pat Rennie is registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) to offer services to clients who reside in Colorado, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Utah and Virginia.
