

Stewart E. Emenheiser, CFP®

Managing Director

Before joining Davenport & Company in April 2019, Stewart spent 13 years as a Financial Advisor with Edward Jones Investments. His focus is on collaborating with families and business owners to provide personalized strategies for their financial goals.

Stewart earned a Bachelor of Science degree from James Madison University. He is Series 7, 9, 10, 63 and 66 registered, is licensed to sell long-term care, life and health insurance and holds a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® professional designation.

Active in his community, Stewart has been a member of the Stafford Rotary where he served as the club's secretary and sat on the Board of Directors for the Stafford Rotary Foundation. Additionally, he volunteers with various community outreach projects through South Ridge Church in Fredericksburg. In his free time, Stewart enjoys cooking, traveling and coaching youth soccer and lacrosse. He and his wife, Marcie, enjoy spending time with their family, including three children, Tenley, Brooks and Saylor.
