

Stewart M. Sigler

Investment Executive

With more than 36 years as a Financial Advisor, Stewart specializes in managing client relationships and assets. Prior to joining Davenport in 2016, he worked as a Financial Advisor for 10 years at Morgan Stanley and for 24 years at Legg Mason. He is Series 7, 63 and 66 registered.

Stewart helps clients achieve their financial goals with custom investment advice and outstanding personal service. He offers a wide range of financial planning services and investment solutions. By taking the time to understand what clients want to achieve with their assets, he offers highly personalized planning and investment advice. This approach allows Stewart to choose the most appropriate investments to serve as a road map for pursuing each client's financial goals.

Stewart earned his BA in Business with a minor in Spanish from Hampden-Sydney College. He enjoys sports and served as a little league coach with Lynchburg Little League Football for several years. He and his wife, Alison, have three children. In his free time, Stewart enjoys playing golf and vacationing at the beach.

All investing carries risk.
