

Thomas Y. Cho

Senior Vice President - Investments

Tom has guided clients in the investment business for more than 27 years, the past 15 of which have been at Davenport helping individuals successfully preserve and grow their wealth. In addition to serving clients, Tom is also the Branch Manager of Davenport's Kilmarnock office. He is Series 7, 63, 65 and 9/10 registered and holds his long-term care, life and health insurance licenses.

Prior to joining Davenport, Tom served as a Financial Advisor for Legg Mason Wood Walker, Inc. where he managed accounts and focused on helping clients meet their financial goals. Tom graduated from Virginia Tech with a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance. He previously served as Finance Committee Chair for the Queens Lake Association.

Tom is committed to helping people improve their lives whether it's offering financial advice through his role at Davenport, or practically through his interests and hobbies. In his free time, he enjoys traveling, sailing, fixing cars, reading, carpentry and spending time with his wife, Rebecca, and their daughters, Caroline and Katie.

All investing carries risk.
