

Tyler Lux

Financial Advisor

Prior to joining Davenport in 2024, Tyler spent 20 years working with S&P Global (formerly SNL Financial), and held various roles across the organization while working in London and Hong Kong. He returned to home to Charlottesville in 2015. In his most recent role, he was responsible for cultivating and managing customer relationships with Investment Banking and Private Equity firms.

Tyler graduated from Hampden-Sydney College with a B.A. in Economics. Outside of work, he enjoys playing golf, coaching little league baseball and spending time with his wife, Lolly, and their two children.
